

Home Ownership: Reaching The Homeless And Addressing Homelessness & Poverty In Canada

Resources and Links

Homelessness in Ottawa takes on many faces as the depths widen at local and national levels. In response, many are exploring the viability and feasibility of developing Homeownership plans for low-income persons. Initiatives are being explored in Canada and at international levels. As an innovative anti-poverty strategy, Homeownership is in keeping with the goals of the national homelessness initiatives and the City of Ottawa's commitment to increase the supply of affordable housing for low-income persons residing in Ottawa.
